

Video Contest

We are looking for high school students to help get the word out about youth suicide prevention.

Students from high schools, community colleges and universities across North Carolina will be selected to create videos. We'll even provide you with funding for production costs!

- 1. Interested contestants must submit a one page overview of their video signed by an adult at your school that will supervise the project.
- 2. All videos must meet the suicide prevention safe messaging guidelines and specified video formats (see attached)
- 3. Students/groups may submit up to two videos: one must be :25 seconds long; the other can be up to 4 minutes long.
- 4. Videos may be shown in movie theaters or on our website. Consent forms must be signed by anyone appearing in the videos.

Please submit your one-page overview to jane.miller@dhhs.nc.gov
